Raise Your Stein to Support Education at the Cowboy Museum's First OktoberWest Celebration

Bavaria meets the Great Plains at the first 21-and-over OktoberWest celebration featuring music, games, traditional German food and beer.

OKLAHOMA CITY, OK – Don your cowboy boots and lederhosen for the first OktoberWest celebration bringing music, dancing, food and beer for visitors 21-and-over to the National Cowboy & Western Heritage Museum on October 29, from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m.

“We are so excited to host a new celebration this fall here at The Cowboy,” said Natalie Shirley, Museum President and CEO. “OktoberWest will be a fun night of music, beer, dance, games and community, all in support of the Museum.”

The OktoberWest celebration performances will be held outside with seating indoors. Live musical entertainment from AlpenMusikanten will bring this celebration to life with traditional German music and singing.

Admission is $25 dollars per person and includes access to the Museum, concert and games. A variety of local beer and traditional German food will be available for purchase. Tickets must be purchased in advance at nationalcowboymuseum.org/oktoberwest, or by calling Kaylia McCracken at (405) 839-7794.

“There’s nothing like fun for a cause,” said John Cresap, Associate Board chair at The Cowboy. “This event is all about supporting education programs at our beloved National Cowboy Museum and continuing on the legacy of making the history and culture of the American West available and accessible for generations to come.”

Sponsorship packages of various levels are available for individual donors, business and large groups. Sponsorships packages come with VIP tickets, commemorative steins, food, beer and mention in event collateral. Proceeds from the event support the Museum's education programs.
